

National Federation of Democratic Women
Resolution in Support of the Democratic Platform for a Woman's Right to Choose

WHEREAS, the Democratic Congressional Campaign Committee (DCCC) through its Chairman Ben Ray Lujan, U.S. Congressman, New Mexico 3rd District, made a statement to the press in 2017 that the DCCC would support Democratic candidates who were anti-abortion; and

WHEREAS, the Chairman received numerous requests from Arizona, New Mexico, and many women's organizations to retract his statement; and

WHEREAS, the Democratic Party has upheld a women's right to choose as part of its National platform.

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the National Federation of Democratic Women supports that all women to have the right to choose and opposes the Democratic Congressional Campaign Committee leadership statements supporting anti-abortion candidates.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the National Federation of Democratic Women requests that the members of the DCCC review the policies regarding support of Democratic candidates and DCCC commitment to the whole platform of the Democratic Party, including women's rights, especially women's right to choose.
