- Sec. 3 The Executive Board shall be the administrative body of the NFDW and shall have the power and authority to do and perform all acts and functions that the NFDW itself might do or perform that are not inconsistent with these Bylaws.
- Sec. 4 The Executive Board shall meet at such time and place as the President or a majority of the board may designate. These meetings, including the Annual Convention, require mandatory attendance with no more than one exception during the course of a term with just cause and shall be in writing to the President. An evaluation of performance shall be required as action by the Board for removal of any officer as determined by a 2/3 vote of the Executive Board.
- Sec. 5 A quorum shall constitute a majority of the board's membership. Voting by proxy shall not be permitted.
- Sec. 6 If necessary the Executive Board may meet by conference call; via telephone. Votes taken by telephone shall be as valid as votes taken in person, except in cases where a signed ballot is a requirement. (Art. VIII Sec.9 – c.)

ARTICLE VII: MEETINGS

- Sec. 1 The Annual Meeting of the NFDW shall be held between April 1st and June 30th. The time and place of the Annual Meeting shall be determined by the Executive Board and announced at least six (6) months (October 1st – January 31st) before the date so fixed.
- Sec. 2 All other meetings shall be held on call of a majority of the Executive Board.
- Sec. 3 The quorum for the Annual Meeting shall be representation from seven (7) states, five (5) of which must be states entitled to full membership.
- Sec. 4 One meeting of each region shall be held at the Annual Meeting. Regional delegates may vote to hold additional meetings within the coming year; subject to the President's approval.

ARTICLE VIII: NOMINATION AND ELECTION OF OFFICERS AND ELECTION OF REGIONAL DIRECTOR

- Sec. 1 The Nominating Committee shall consist of two (2) members plus one (1) alternate from each region and one (1) member from the Executive Board. The two elected regional members shall be from different states. The elected alternate may be from any state within the region. Members shall be elected within their respective caucus at the even numbered year's annual meeting; subject to ratification by the convention body. No member may serve two consecutive terms on the Nominating Committee. One cannot serve on the Nominating Committee and be a candidate for one of the offices being nominated.

- Sec. 2 To be eligible for election to the Nominating Committee a nominee shall have participated in at least one (1) NFDW Convention in addition to the one where the election of the committee is held.
- Sec. 3 Alternates have no vote unless they take the place of an elected member from their region.
- Sec. 4 Duties of the Nominating Committee shall be:
- (a) To meet directly after their election and elect the Chair and at least once again before the Convention to present a slate of officers after a review of credentials on each candidate. Any subsidy shall be established by the financial policy of the Executive Board.
 - (b) To compile a list of names of proposed officers for the NFDW; a brief resume of each nominee shall be included in the Call to the Annual Meeting that has as part of its agenda the election of officers. Nominating Committee members shall receive copies of all resumes.
- Sec. 5 Contested elections of officers shall be by ballot. Only accredited delegates shall vote. A majority vote shall elect.
- Sec. 6 To be eligible for election to the office of President, First, Second, Third, Fourth or Fifth Vice-President, Recording Secretary or Treasurer and members of the Democratic National Committee, a nominee must have been a club and State Federation member for no less than the last three (3) years and have participated in at least one (1) NFDW meeting in addition to the one where the election of officers is held. No officer shall serve more than one (1) term in the same office, except members of the Democratic National Committee.
- Sec. 7 The term of office shall be for two (2) years.
- Sec. 8 To be eligible for election as Regional Director, the qualifications shall be the same as set forth in Article VIII Section 6. They shall be elected at the Regional Meeting held during the Annual Meeting of the Federation in odd numbered years. No Regional Director shall be eligible to serve more than two (2) consecutive terms in office.
- Sec. 9 There shall be selected to the Democratic National Committee in the year of the election of the President such number of DNC members as have been apportioned to the NFDW pursuant to the Bylaws of the Democratic Party of the United States. Each elected member shall serve for a term of four (4) years, beginning the day following the last day of the next National Party Convention and ending on the last day of the following National Party Convention or until a successor has been duly elected.
- (a) Membership on the DNC: The President will be a permanent member and two members who are Federation members will be elected individually by a majority vote of the delegates to the Federation Convention to be held in the year of such election. No member shall be eligible to serve more than two (2) consecutive terms in the position. This amendment to Article VIII, Section 9(a) will become effective at the convention held in 2012. Any member who is eligible to run for this position may do so at that time.

- (b) Change in Office: In the event that the President is succeeded in office, the new President shall fill the remainder of the DNC Term.
- (c) Vacancy in Membership: Vacancies in the office of DNC Member shall be filled by a majority vote of the Executive Board duly informed and for such purpose by signed ballot. Such vacancies shall be filled no later than sixty (60) days after occurrence of same. Such action shall be reported at the first Annual Meeting of the NFDW following the appointment.

ARTICLE IX: COMMITTEES

Standing and Special Committees shall be appointed by the President with approval of the Executive Board. Standing Committee Chairs shall be appointed for one (1) year. Reappointment shall be at the option of the President with the consent of the Board.

The organization shall have the following Standing Committees:

- (1) Bylaws: The call for Bylaw Amendments shall be issued at convention and mailed within the quarter thereafter. All proposed amendments to the bylaws shall be sent to both the Chair of the Bylaws Committee and to the President no later than February 1st. All amendments either proposed by the members-at-large or the Bylaws Committee shall be mailed with the Call to the Annual Meeting. The committee shall review all proposed amendments and make recommendations to the Annual Convention with respect to their adoption.
- (2) Legislative: This committee shall work with the DNC on pending and proposed legislation and shall disseminate information to the members, together with the written view of the committee, giving consideration to resolutions passed by the NFDW Resolutions Committee.
- (3) Budget: This Committee shall present a proposed budget to the Executive Board for consideration at the first Executive Board Meeting. The Treasurer shall serve as a member of this committee.
- (4) Finance: The committee shall plan and execute all fundraising with approval of the Executive Board. At least one (1) Vice President shall serve on this committee.
- (5) Resolutions: Resolutions must be submitted to the Chair of the Resolutions Committee one (1) month prior to the Annual Meeting. The Resolutions Committee shall present all resolutions to the Annual Meeting together with their recommendations. Resolutions signed by at least ten (10) delegates representing at least five (5) states may be received from the floor.
- (6) History: The committee's purpose shall be to receive all NFDW records, artifacts and memorabilia for deposit at the organization's permanent storage site. The committee shall be responsible for collecting, organizing and archiving such items. Five (5) members shall each serve staggered terms of two (2) years. Members from the Eastern and Midwest Regions shall elect their members in the even numbered years; the Southern and Western Regions shall elect in the odd numbered years at the Annual Convention. The President shall appoint the fifth member who shall serve a term of two (2) years. The committee shall choose the chairman.

- (7) Public Relations: Shall consist of four (4) members, one from each region who shall be responsible for the submission of accurate information concerning their region for the web site as well as the Communicator newsletter and sending it to the webmaster for posting. Members shall be appointed by the President for a term of two (2) years that shall coincide with the election of officers.

ARTICLE X: FISCAL YEAR

The Fiscal Year shall be from April 1 to March 31.

ARTICLE XI: AMENDMENT OF THE BYLAWS

- Sec. 1 These Bylaws may be amended at any Annual Meeting by a two-thirds vote, provided the proposed amendment has been submitted in writing to the Bylaws Chair and to the President by February 1st. All proposed amendments shall be included in the Call to the Annual Meeting of the NFDW.

ARTICLE XII: PARLIAMENTARY AUTHORITY

Where the Bylaws are silent, the current edition of Roberts Rules of Order Newly Revised shall be the final authority in all matters.

ARTICLE XIII: DISSOLUTION

Should this organization be dissolved by appropriate action of its membership, and after all outstanding bills have been paid; the funds and other assets shall be given to the DNC to be used to promote and develop leadership of young women within the Democratic Party. In keeping with the NFDW purpose, these funds shall be used to sponsor an internship for a young woman at the DNC Headquarters. This directive shall continue until said funds are depleted.
