

Federation Awards from 1986

The NFDW Awards were first given in 1986 by President Caroline Wilkins at Convention in Little Rock, Arkansas. Special recognition was given to Federation Founder Rilla Moran Woods; Dorothy Bush, long-time Secretary of the DNC; Betty Bumpers, co-founder of Peace Links and Pamela Harriman, stellar Democratic fundraiser. All four were present to accept their Awards and conducted workshops or served on panels during Convention. Later that year, Caroline, Immediate-Past President Angie Elkins and her daughter Debbie Elkins met and drafted the criteria for three awards: Outstanding NFDW Member; Outstanding Democratic Woman Elected Official and Humanitarian.
