

NEWS RELEASE

WANTED:

- Young women between the ages of 18 and 25
- Must like politics
- Be an active Democrat
- Would like to spend a month in Washington, D.C.
- And receive $3,000!

The National Federation of Democratic Women (NFDW) offers the “Rilla Moran Woods Internship Award” (Founder’s Award) to such a young woman. This award was established in honor of Rilla Woods our first president, at the close of her presidency. The winner will have the opportunity to serve a month’s internship at the Democratic National Committee’s (DNC) Headquarters. The Founder’s Award also provides the winner with a stipend of $3,000. The purpose of the internship is to reward a young woman who has already evidenced an interest in Democratic politics at her local and state levels. The award will be presented to the winner at the NFDW convention in Albuquerque, NM May 30 - June 1, 2008

The applicant must be 18 to 25 years of age and be endorsed by her local Democratic Women’s Club and the State Democratic Women’s Federation. Other endorsements enhance her application but are not a requirement. She must submit a letter of application detailing her academic standing, her political involvement and other interests and a 200 word essay explaining why a month’s internship at the DNC will help her with her political or career ambitions.

The second place winner will receive the Agnes Bird Internship Award in the amount of $1,500. This internship is for two weeks in the State Party office or a Congressional District office and is arranged by the State Democratic Federation.
