The New Jersey Federation of Democratic Women has planned a wonderful convention June 4-7, 2015 in Atlantic City, New Jersey. Special thanks to all the women who have worked tirelessly for months to make all of the arrangements. We appreciate all you have done and can't wait for you to help us "Pump Out the Vote"!

Safe travels to everyone making their way to New Jersey and traveling throughout the summer. We have a lot of work to do.

Best wishes to you and your families for a wonderful and safe summer.

Sincerely,

Carye & Slaney President

NANCEE MAY
NJFDW PRESIDENT / NFDW 1st VICE PRESIDENT LORRAINE JOEWONO AMV DAD MONICA HONIS MARGARET MARTIN SYLVIA VAN NOCKAY

Dear Friend:

With the untimely recent passing of our beloved state President Nancee May, the New Jersey Chapter of the National Federation of Democratic Women is working hard to fulfill her wishes for a tremendously successful convention. Nancee — who was poised to be elected President of the NFDW — was once again successful in bringing the NFDW 2015 Convention to New Jersey an effort she also accomplished in 2006. In fact, just this past November, Nancee was successful in bringing NFDW Executive Board and Eastern Region members to Atlantic City for a regional meeting.

To honor Nancee's legacy, the New Jersey Federation of Democratic Women is proud to host the National Federation of Democratic Women's 44th Annual Convention from June 4-7, 2015 at Resorts Casino-Hotel in Atlantic City. The convention will bring together women from across the nation to share ideas, raise voices, and prepare to Pump Out the Vote for democratic victories in 2015 and beyond.

The NFDW was founded in 1971 during the Democratic Women's Leadership Conference in Washington, D.C. During the period 1972-1977, the Federation gained recognition from the Democratic National Committee as the official women's organization and received a seat on the DNC Executive Committee and three seats on the DNC. To this date, it is the only women's group given that privilege. The National Federation of Democratic Women has chapters in states and US Territories.

It would be an honor to have you join with us in Atlantic City by registering to attend the convention, purchasing an ad in the souvenir Ad Journal, or setting up a vendor table. We have enclosed forms and further information for your review. Any questions you may have please contact us 732-674-4983 or email abpapi@comcast.net.

We look forward to seeing you in Atlantic City.

Sincerely, Amy Papi, 2nd Vice President NJ Federation of Democratic Women 2015 NFDW Convention Chair

Dr. Gail Cook, President Burlington County Chapter of the NJ Federation of Democratic Women 2015 NFDW Convention Co-Chair

Day in Victorian Cape May Thursday, June 4, 2015

Cape May, a National Historic Landmark, is known world-over for its enchanting 19th century Victorian heritage. Our first stop will be at the Emlen Physick Estate built in 1879, Cape May's only Victorian house museum and its Carriage House's current exhibit. Then it's time to get acquainted with Cape May on a narrated Trolley Tour of the Historic District as a guide presents entertaining and educational stories about the Victorian homeowners and the city's architectural styles and folklore. Many of the town's beautiful homes double as B&B's. The next stop will be for lunch at one of Cape May's most popular and historical restaurants. Then you'll have the opportunity to take a walk along the Cape May Boardwalk, enjoy the gingerbread homes up close, and experience "one of a kind" quaint shops on the Washington Mall.

Fee for Services: Based on 40 people ($65 per person)

Atlantic City Trolley Tour

Thursday, June 4, 2015 Enjoy your "Day in AC" as you

Enjoy your "Day in AC" as you journey through Absecon Island learning about its past, present and future. The first stop will be at the Atlantic City Historical Museum where you'll see photos and lots of AC paraphernalia. Learn about the Boardwalk, Miss America, saltwater taffy and the plethora of icons that have made Atlantic City famous. Then it's off to the newly restored 1857 Absecon Lighthouse. You'll have the chance to climb the 228 steps to the top and experience the spectacular view of the coastline in addition to hearing the lighthouse keeper's commentary. The next stop is Historic Gardner's Basin where you'll hear about Rumrunners, Bootleggers, Shipwrecks, The Grave Yard Inlet, the Widows Walk and much more. You'll have the chance to walk around and visit the crafters' lane and enjoy the back-bay views. Lunch will be at a popular AC restaurant before it's off for one last drive-through the city with narration and the showing off of many more AC popular historical and current spots.

Fee for Services: Based on 30 people ($65 per person)

Includes roundtrip trolley transportation, admissions to all attractions, guide, lunch, all taxes and gratuities, bottled water and snacks, ACA escort, all pre-event and onsite coordination with Resorts and all venues/vendors, and ACA management fee.

A Posthumous Nomination for Nancee May as NFDW President

he NFDW Executive Board and the Eastern Region had the opportunity to be with Nancee May in Atlantic City in November. For most of us, it was the last time that we saw her. Nancee was excited and looking forward to planning the annual convention and being a candidate for President of the National Federation of Democratic Women. Rolling around in her scooter, giving directions and flaunting her new blond hair, she smiled, made jokes and re-assured us that this would be the best convention ever.

Given Nancee's dedication to her New Jersey Federation and the National Federation, her state took the unprecedented step to nominate her as President of the NFDW. As a member of the nominating committee and executive board we would like to honor her life and work with NFDW by including some words from the New Jersey letter of nomination.

"Always a team member, Nancee's lifelong work was dedicated to building the base of the NFDW and the Democratic Party. Until her untimely passing, she continued to enhance the activities of Democratic Women and just a mere four days before she passed on, Nancee dictated a list of needs she wanted accomplished to a small convention committee she assigned to make the NFDW's 44th Annual Convention a tremendous success. As NJFDW President she worked tirelessly each and every

"Throughout her personal and public life, Nancee was committed to developing the potential of women by escalating women's participation in the political process and improving their lives. She had an incredible ability to bring together people from all walks of life, interests and professional pursuits and encouraged them to work together to effectuate positive change for them, their families and the communities in which they live."

New Jersey, we acknowledge your nomination and we thank you, Nancee, for everything.

Wake Up Call to Action

An excerpt from a Call to Action by Hazel Bland Thomas, DCFDW's Representative DC Democratic State Committee s we approach local elections and the 2016 Election Season, we should remind ourselves and others that "Political Action begins in us and ends in others."

I. REMEMBER YOU ARE A LEADER

- Know that you are a leader. You have worked on campaigns, been the block captains, have run the phone banks, gotten out the vote and raised the money!
- You are a leader! Own it! This knowledge will empower you to help others.
- Knowing you are a leader will give you the impetus to utilize your network and sphere of influence to give your issues and organization power.
- If you call 10 or Facebook 10 or blog 10 and they contact 10, very soon you can start a movement.
- Be sure to use your influence to educate, mentor and open avenues to others, particularly young people. Reach back and raise up new, innovative leaders and candidates/Lean forward to help new people realize their leadership potential.

Leadership begins with YOU and ends in others.

II. YOU HAVE A RESPONSIBILITY

- Democrats are inclusive. We believe everyone can fit under the "Big Tent." We care for the "last, the lost and the least of these."
- We believe in equal access to jobs, health care, a women's right to choose, and we believe in helping people at wherever station they are. We don't believe anyone should have to wait for economic empowerment to "trickle down" from the rich.
- Commit to others. You may "have to go up in the 'Cut' to bring out the folks" who have been marginalized or disenfranchised. Remind them that they matter.
- You may need to change your tactics "from having the black tie to having a fish fry" or whatever it takes to engage disenfranchised or alienated people.
- Share the knowledge and the depth of your experience to give newcomers and young people clearer perspective on local and national politics.
- Let others know they count and welcome them to political action. We do social things, but this is NOT as social cub. Don't wait for others to take action You do it!

Remember, if it's worthy for you to do – it's up to YOU!!

YOU CAN DO IT

- Use you critical thinking to recognize that everything in the media or on tv or on a blog isn't accurate, true or even relevant.
- Ask yourself what is the media's end game? If their end game doesn't match with your core values, use your own instinct to make critical decisions.
- Use your knowledge and influence to register voters, get out the vote, endorse candidates and advise younger members of the Democratic Party.
- Set up your own score card to weigh the effectiveness of political officials and candidates on the issues that matter to you.
- Commit to becoming Tech Savvy. Remember one blogger can have the impact of 100 even 1,000 people.
- Use of social media for legislative and community advocacy is how today's political game is played. You can't win the game if you don't know the rules!!
- Being tech savvy will enlarge, magnify and extend your sphere of power. You have the POWER if you will just use it.

Remember the movement begins with YOU!

YOU ARE A LEADER - YOU HAVE A RESPONSIBILITY - YOU CAN DO IT!!

NFDW Officer Nominees

JoAnne Sullivan – Nominee for President

oanne has been actively involved in Democratic politics in Connecticut for more than 25 years. She has dedicated her life to public service, working to elect Democrats at the local, state, and federal level. Joanne is a member of the Connecticut Federation of Democratic Women and the immediate Past President of this organization, having served as president from 2007 – 2011. She has also served as Treasurer and Vice President of the Connecticut Federation. In 2005, she was awarded the prestigious "Susan B. Anthony" award by the Connecticut Federation of Democratic Women.

In addition to this, she also has served as President, Vice-President, and Treasurer of the Democratic Women's of East Hartford, Connecticut, is an active member and Vice Chair of the 2nd District Democratic Town Committee in East Hartford, CT and currently serves as the Vice Chair of the East Hartford Democratic Town Committee. She has also actively served on various campaigns at the local and state levels throughout this time.

Joanne has been active in Democratic politics at both the local and state level. She was elected to the East Hartford Town Council in 1995 and served on the Town Council for 8 years, 6 of which she was the Vice Chair, while raising her 3 small children and working full time as an educator.

The 1st NFDW convention that she attended was in Puerto Rico in 1996, just after being elected to the Town Council for the 1st time. She was previously nominated as a "Democratic Diamond" at the Portland, Oregon NFDW convention in 1995 by the East Hartford Democratic Women's Club.
